MARCH 31, 2024

We pray that all who enter the Church of the Holy Comforter experience God's presence in this community of faith, a community that through Christ strives to be loving, joyous, inclusive, and transforming and filled with God's grace.

The Church of the Holy Comforter welcomes you to this service. This service leaflet, The Book of Common Prayer (red), The Hymnal 1982 (blue), Wonder, Love, and Praise (green), and Lift Every Voice and Sing (black) provide the resources needed for participation in our worship. The hymns which begin with an "S" are in the front of The Hymnal 1982. Unless noted by either "WLP" or "LEVAS" the hymns are found in The Hymnal 1982. We hope that you will feel at home at Holy Comforter and will return again soon and often.

WELCOME TO HOLY COMFORTER!

- Guest Book ~ Our guest book is located on a stand at the back of the church. If you are new to Holy Comforter, please sign the guest book. We are so glad that you are worshiping with us today!
- Receiving Communion ~ To receive, stand or kneel around the Holy Table, simply hold your hands palms up and the priest or deacon will place a piece of bread in them. To receive wine from the chalice, assist the chalice bearer by holding the base and helping to guide it to your lips. We will offer one chalice from which to drink and one for intinction, dipping the bread into the wine. Please inform the person holding the bread if you wish to perform the intinction, and the person will do it for you and place the bread and wine in your open palm. If you do not wish to receive the bread or the wine, we welcome you to receive a blessing—to indicate this, please cross your arms on your chest. Gluten-free bread is available as is a non-alcoholic option chalice; simply ask the clergy.
- Votive Candles ~ You may light a candle at the votive stand in the back of the church. Votive candles may be lit before, during, or after the service.
- Child Care ~. Even our youngest children are welcome to remain with us in the church for the service. Enjoy our baby/toddler/young child area in the pews. On Sundays, we do offer nursery care.
- Restrooms are located in this building behind the choir area; go out the doors by the Earth banner and turn left. One of the restrooms contains a baby-changing station. Ushers can guide you. Additional restrooms are in the parish house, the building right next door.

The Second Reading Acts 10:34-43

Peter began to speak to Cornelius and the other Gentiles: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ--he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel ~Mark 16:1-8

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint Jesus. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you." So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

The Rev. Dr. Hilary Borbón Smith

A period of silence follows the sermon

The Renewal of Baptismal Vows

Presider Through the Paschal mystery, dear friends, we are buried with Christ by Baptism into his death, and raised with him to newness of life. I call upon you, therefore, now that our Lenten observance is ended, to renew the solemn promises and vows of Holy Baptism, by which we once renounced Satan and all his works, and promised to serve God faithfully in God's holy Catholic Church.

Presider Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?

People I do.

Presider Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Presider Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?
People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Presider Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?
People I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Presider Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?
People I will, with God's help.

Presider Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?
People I will, with God's help.

Presider Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?
People I will, with God's help.

Presider Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?
People I will, with God's help.

Presider Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?
People I will, with God's help.

Presider May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Deacon O Christ of great compassion, in the moments after your resurrection, you demonstrated your faithful love to Mary, calling her by name and comforting her fears. We, too, live in the wake of your risen glory, still trembling with fear and uncertainty, even as we trust in your promises. Hear us now as we call to you; show us again your steadfast kindness. Risen Christ, raise us to new life in you.

Leader O compassionate one, we pray for those who are surviving the sword, who face violence of all kinds— spiritual, emotional, physical, social. Comfort them, even as you teach us the ways of wholeness and peace. Risen Christ,
People raise us to new life in you.

Leader O compassionate one, we pray for those who seek your grace in the wilderness, who live without a home, who cry for refuge while in exile, whose habitats have been destroyed. Make us into a home for them, even as you empower us to address the root causes of rootlessness. Risen Christ,
People raise us to new life in you.

Leader O compassionate one, we pray for those who long for rest— rest from grief, from unjust labor, from chronic illness, from anxiety, depression, loneliness, and stress, from oppression and fear. Bring them out of the muck and mire into a broad, still place, even as you instruct us in the practice of sabbath. Risen Christ,
People raise us to new life in you.

Leader O compassionate one, we pray for those who only know you from far away, who have been hurt by the actions of those who say they love you, who suffer the kind of doubt that burdens their spirits, who long to experience your love. Draw close to them, even as you shape us into a living embodiment of your radical welcome. Risen Christ,
People raise us to new life in you.

Leader We give you thanks for all who have been baptized, that they may be empowered and sustained by their life in Christ. Risen Christ,
People raise us to new life in you.

Additional Prayers are offered.

Presider O Christ of great compassion, you have loved us with an everlasting love. Along with all for whom we have already prayed, we bring before you those prayers left unsaid. Continue your faithfulness to us, even as we become more faithful to you; through the power of your Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Peace

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

The Holy Communion

The Great Thanksgiving, Eucharistic Prayer 1 from Enriching our Worship
The people remain standing.

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing

Sanctus

Holy, ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord God of ho - sts.
Hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord of the Lord.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Presider

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace. But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people. Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life. On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Presider

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your children, that with the blessed virgin Mary, St. Joseph, and all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider As our Savior Christ has taught us, let us pray to God, who is our Divine Parent, our Mother,

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is kept. Then all sing

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.
Christ our Pass - o - ver is sac - ri - ficed for us;
there - fore let us keep the feast.
Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Post-communion Prayer

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and forever. Amen.

The Blessing

O God, by water and the Holy Spirit we have been buried with Christ and raised to the new life of grace: Give us inquiring and discerning hearts, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works. And the blessing of God, Creator, Christ, and Holy Comforter, be among you and remain with you forever. Amen.
